WOMEN FORM COMMITTEE OF NATIONAL DEFENSE COUNCIL

Charleroi Represented at Meeting Which Was Held Thursday

MANY FORMS OF ACTIVITIES

Mrs. H. W. Tweed, representing the Charleroi Suffrage Club, was in Washington on Thursday attending a meeting at which the Washington County Committee of the Pennsylvania Division of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense was organized.

Mrs. Edwin Linton of Washington was elected President, with Mrs. A. M. Linn as Secretary, to which every president of every woman's organization is asked to send her name and address.

Mrs. Linton explained the purpose of the Council of National Defense, created by act of Congress and composed of five members of President Wilson's cabinet. An auxiliary to the council, the Women's Committee of nine members, was organized in April. The Pennsylvania division of the committee has created ten departments to have charge of any work it may be called upon to do, and this departmental organization will be followed in the county work.

The departments to which the women of the county will be asked to give their attention are, registration, and home economics, women in industry, child welfare, maintenance of existing social agencies, (settlement, public health nursing, [illegible] day nurseries, general social service etc.) education, (schools, literature, speakers, information of training classes of women) Liberty Loan, home and foreign relief, (Red Cross, etc.,) and safeguarding or moral and spiritual forces.

Co-operation of the women of the county in the registration of all housekeepers for the conservation of food materials was asked for by Warren R. Jackson of the Washington Board of Trade, while in the other departments in which women will be active will provide means for every woman in the county to do something for the benefit of the country during the period of war.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS ZELLERS

Funeral services with sermon for Mrs. Mary A. Zellers were held this morning at 9 o'clock in St. Jerome's church and the funeral party left on the 10:23 train for Pittsburg, where interment tooks place in St. Mary's cemetery this afternoon. As this is a feast day of Sts. Peter and Paul, and one of the few days on which requiem high mass is not permitted in the Catholic church, the requiem high mass for the deceased will be held in St. Jerome's church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

STATE POLICE WILL ARREST AUTO SPEEDERS

Orders were issued on Friday of last week to all state police to vigorously enforce the automobile laws, especially against persons who indulge in speeding on state highways. This action was taken by Major John C. Groome, superintendent of state police, at the request of Highway Commissioner Frank C. Black, who has been getting complaints about racing and excessive speed on state roads.

In connection with this order Major Groome sent a letter to the district attorney of every county in the state, asking that they prosecute all cases arising out of arrests by the state police for speeding and other violations of the automobile and road laws, so that the illegal practices may be broken up.

COAL PRICES ARE REDUCED

New Rate to go into Effect on the First of July

$3.50 PER TON IS MINIMUM

Five dollars a ton at the mine for bituminous coal will be a thing of the past, beginning with July the first. In its place a maximum price of $3.50 a ton for domestic coal and $3.00 a ton for all other coal f. o. b. the mines for all states east of the Mississippi river will go into effect on Sunday next.

This decision was reached Thursday night at Washington at the conference of operators with Secretary of the Interior Lane, J. Franklin Fort and Francis H. Peabody, chairman of the coal production of the Council of National Defense.

This decision and new price wil naturally affect a large number of the smaller shippers who are shipping coal from practically every siding wherever a smal tract of coal is available. There are many shippers in Charleroi and vicinity, who have been doing quite a profitable business, having no difficulty in disposing of all the coal they could produce at $3 per ton and even better. The reduction announced will make their returns much smaller, but even at the figures announced they will still be able to continue in business, although their product has to be handled several times before it finally reaches the car.

CANNING EXPERTS TO VISIT CHARLEROI

Beginning next Tuesday, July 3rd, demonstrations of canning and drying food will be given in this county by a State College expert. The demonstration will be followed in July and August by schools of household economy. Organization of the housewives in the various communities of the county to learn from the experts modern methods of food conservation have already been formed and in many instances they will purchase co-operatively necessary apparatus.

These are some of the steps the women of this county are taking to help their country in the war, steps which will mean the elimination of waste and the preservation of food materials in a way which will hit the enemy as hard as almost any other offensive strategy.

County Agriculturist J. M. McKee on Thursday pronounced these projects the first and best practical moves yet made in the county in the food campaign. The women's defense committee and the public safety committee are expected to lend their hearty support.

A tour will be made o fthe county by the State College expert, an itinerary having been arranged, Charleroi being in Group Two. The demonstrator will be here on the afternoon of July 5th, appearing at California in the evening. The demonstrators will have canning outfits with them and explain fully every step of the process. The lectures will be free, except that each community will be asked to entertain the experts and pay their traveling expenses. Mrs. Tweed will have charge of the arrangements for Charleroi and it is likely that local ministers will be asked to announce from the pulpit on Sunday the canning and drying demonstrations in their districts.

DRAFT BOARDS ARE BEING ORGANIZED

Draft boards which have been appointed during the past few days, are now being organized and the members sworn into service. The registration cards will be turned over to the draft boards, who will give each card a serial number. These serial numbers and names will be posted in the offices of the draft boards, where they can be viewed by the residents of the various zones.

The new registration cards must show the new serial numbers which will be used in the draft. All of the registration cards for any one local zone will be numbered from one to the total number registered in that zone. Some draft boards will have to number more than 3,000 cards.

Each original registration card is given a serial number and the same serial number must be written on the duplicate card. Both cards must be carefully checked back. The original cards will be kept by the local draft boards and the duplicate sent to the adjutant general at Harrisburg. Each registrant, by noting the number opposite has name on the posted lists, will be able to tell whether or not he has been drafted after the numbers have been drawn at Washington.

NAVIGATION SHUT OFF FOR A FEW HOURS

As a result of excessive aiid in the river, Lock No. 2 at Braddock, was closed for a few hours on Tuesday, when a butterfly valve in the lock chamber broke. The steamer Slackwater was called to make repairs. A b utterfly valve at Lock No. 1 broke on Monday from the same cause.

Notice to the Public.
Peter Lazzari started his factory at 230 Chess street Monongahela, Pa. and makes a full line of macaroni. Best quality at low price. Good service and prompt deliveries. 6-t9-*

RETAIL PRICES ARE ALMOST DOUBLE COST

According to a statement given out by the Federal Trade Commission at Washington on Tuesday current retail prices on canned goods are nearly twice the prices paid canners by wholesalers for this season's output. This statement was made after inquiring into the food prices now charged the public. Wholesalers are paying about 7 1-2 cents a can for corn and about 9 1-2 cents a can for tomatoes and peas f. o. b. factory. The same cans are sold retail at an average of 17 cents for corn, 18 cents for peas and 20 cents for tomatoes. The statement does not attempt to analyze the differences in prices, but says: "Next autumn and winter, if complaints are made in any locality that unreasonable prices are being charged for the canned peas, corn, tomatoes, salmon or similar products which are now being packed, the commission will be in a position to promtly expose any extortion."

BUILDING DESTROYED AT GARBAGE FURNACE

The building at the garbage furnace located on Lincoln avenue extension, took fire shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon and was practically destroyed. The building caught fire in the interior and although the fire department was called they were powerless to do anything as the building was beyond the water service.

PREACHING AT MAPLE CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

Preaching services will be held at the Maple Creek Baptist church on Sunday next, in charge of Elder Cleavenger of West Virginia.

A lawn fete will be held on the lawn of St. Jerome's church Saturday evening. 13-t1-*

PRICE OF FOODSTUFFS IS BEING LOWERED

Reports from Chicago indicate that the price of flour is apt to take a material drop within a few weeks. It is already on the down grade, with process for present delivery quoted on Wednesday at $13.50, while August deliveries are quoted at $10.50. Flour prices are expected to be followed by others, notably on vegetables and fruits, which are coming into the market in great quantities at the present time. Potatoes, which have been at an extraordinary figure for some time, are feeling the effect of the new crop, thousands of bushels of which are now being received in different markets, and consumers have every reason to believe that the price very shortly will be in keeping with present conditions. In Pittsburg the price of potatoes dropped to $7.00 per barrel with indications of a further reduction in the next few days.

CONFER WITH RED CROSS OFFICERS

Committee from California Branch Visit Local Headquarters

ARE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

C. N. Savage, chairman of the Enrollment Committee; Frank McCune, secretary of the California Branch of the Charleroi Chapter of the Red Cross, were in town Thursday evening, conferring with local officials at Charleroi headquarters.

R. H Rush, H. J. Booth, Mrs. Kirk the local officers in conference with the visitors, who reported affairs progressing in a very satisfactory manner with the new Branch. Mr. Savage, whose committee is one of the most important, said the California Branch was receiving quite a number of new members, as well as many contributions, these latter coming in unsolicited. All of the visitors reported the outlook for the work as California as being most promising and when all details have been perfected, so that the Branch could go along unassisted, the various activities of the Red Cross will be pushed with greater vigor than ever.

The local officials explained at considerable length at the conference the various details of the work as it has come to them, and advised with

Charleroi Schools Will Conform to the Spirit of the Day

ALL CITIZENS ASKED TO JOIN

Next Sunday has been designated as "Patriotic Sunday" in all of the Sunday schools of the United States, and the various Sabbath schools of Charleroi will have exercises appropriate to the spirit of the day on the date mentioned. Both President Wilson and Governor Brumbaugh have issued proclamation, setting aside this day as "Patriotic Sunday," and asking all connected with these institutions, as well as the people generally to assemble on that day to observe in an appropriate manner the purposes of the day. The proclamations are as follows:

To the Officers, Teachers and Scholars of the Sunday Schools of the United States of America:

The present insistent call of our beloved country must be heard and answered by every citizen of the United States in proportion to his or her ability to maintain the national power and honor.

Many citizens will render thir aid by force of arms on the battlefield, while others will make the nation strong by their patriotic gifts and support to the common cause. It is therefore highly fitting that the Sunday schools of the nation should observe a special patriotic [illegible] this occasion should make [illegible] contribution to the American Red Cross for the alleviation of the suffering entailed by the prosecution of the present war.

It is my earnest hope that your generousity may be unstinted in this, the hour of the nation's need, and that this special duty may mean much to you in the understanding of the cause for which our beloved land now contends.

Whereas, Sunday, July 1, 1917, has been set aside by the International Sunday School Association, an interdenominatonal body composed of above 150,000 Sunday schools, and a membership of 18,000,000 persons as Patriotic Sunday. and

Whereas, On that day it is proposed to instruct by special services all this mighty army upon the importance of conserving and advancing the spiritual life of our people in these unfortunate war days, and

Whereas, It is eminently fitting that the fundemental virtues of good citizenship and of national patriotism and loyalty be fully impressed upon all our people, and

Whereas, These essential teachings will if wisely imparted, promote in a very definite way the welfare of our country and Commonwealth by the open expression of gratitude to Almighty God for our nation, by stim-

AMERICAN PRISONERS IN GERMANY.

Lord Northcliffe, the distinguished English publicist and publisher, now directing British affairs in this country, has pointed out the need of future work by the Red Cross which nobody else seems to have thought of. This is the feeding of American prisoners of war in Germany. As yet there are no such prisoners, but inevitably there will be if the war lasts, such prisoners must be fed from the outside or virtually starve, the Lord Northcliffe thinks that this work should be undertaken and prepared for in advance by the Red Cross

It is the policy of the German government, he says, to place the onus feeding her war prsoners upon the country from which those prisoners come. At the outset the British government made the mistake of leaving this matter to the families of captive Englishmen, but the work was not wisely or systematically done, the packing being bad and the choice of supplies being often misguided and unseasonable. Great improvement followed the placing of this matter in the hands of a special department of the Red Cross. Lord Northcliffe also says that our men at the front will need amusement in order to stand the strain, and that newspapers and books as well as home letters must be sent to them. The British even send musicians and actors to entertain their soldiers during rest periods.

A very serious question which all this suggests is whether the forwarded supplies will reach our captive men in Germany, whether they will not be given instead to the short-rationed and suffering German soldiery. In view of outrageous war measures long justified by the Germans, it is but reasonable to expect robbery of this sort, particularly after Germany's need of food and other supplies has become more urgent than ever. In that case what are we to do and what are our imprisoned men to depend on?

The requirements incidental, upon the triumph of the Protestant cause were responsible for the bringing of a German royal family into England. This can not now be undone, and the present agitation merely demands the introduction of pure English blood into the royal family through the abolition of foreign marriages and a return to the ancient custom which permitted English kings to choose wives from the nobility of their own realm. The troubles attributed to royal consorts of foreign birth in both Russia and Greece are impressive reminders of the undesirable results of the present system, especially when countries with closely akin royalties are at war.

Under an estimate of about ten million young Americans between 21 and 31 years, virtually complete returns show that 9,649,938 have enrolled for war. The war loan called for two billions and the subscriptions amounted to $3,035,226,850. It is enough.

A headline, inspired by the passage of the food control bill by the House, announces: "Bread prices to fall—meat and sugar next." This news—almost too good to be true—would be even more welcome if it included coal among the early tumbles.

Now that Irishmen have been told to settle their own difficulties and failed, perhaps they will begin to appreciate the magnitude of England's long-standing job.

Good crop reports won't worry the food speculators, the war remaining a convenient make-believe explanation of excessive prices.

BUFFALO BILL'S CAR ADVERTISING CAR HERE

The advertising car of the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, now owned by Jess Willard, the champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, arrived in Charleroi last night, and today the crew is hard at work billing the town and countryside for the appearance of the show in Charleroi, Saturday, July 14. The show appears in Monessen the day previous.

NO MATERIAL CHANGES IN PASSENGER SCHEDULE

No material change is expected in the passenger train schedule on the Monongahela Division of the Pennsylvania railroad, which goes into effect early Sunday morning. No trains will be annulled and no new trains will be added, the present schedule being considered very satisfactory. Slight changes in time will take place trains arriving and departing a few minutes earlier than the present schedule calls for. It is rumored that the Marianna "bummer" from Monongahela will be discontinued, except on Saturday night, but this is not verified Should this change take place it would mean that no train would go out the M. & W. branch from Monongahela after 3:35 in the afternoon

A MIRAGE IN THE CLOUDS.

The Specter That Gave an Aviator the Scare of His Life.

An extraordinary story of a mirage in the clouds is told by a young flying corps officer in the British service:

"I had often wondered what it would feel like to see a machine coming straight for one and to know that a collision was inevitable. I had the experience one afternoon, only the collision did not take place. I was on patrol with five other machines over the lines and had just gone into a cloud bank. Just before going in I saw the bus on my right turning to cross in front of me. All of a sudden I saw a machine just the same as my own appear out of the cloud about fifty feet away, making straight for me Instinctively I jammed my nose hard down and went as near a nose dive as possible. The other bus did the same. I turned! The other turned into me. I was in a cold perspiration all over by this time so I thought, 'Here goes. If I am going to crash it might as well be complete.' So straight for it I went. We got closer and closer, and, bar, my machine and—its mirage in the clouds met!

"It seemed like a hideous nightmare, and I can still see that machine doing its utmost to crash into me. I think I can say I have had the full horrors of a collision in the air without its actually taking place."—London Telegraph

INDIA'S ARMY ELEPHANTS.

Their Skill In Moving Big Guns That Have Become Stated.

In India elephants are used in many ways in the army, especially in moving artillery. Of their work in this line a British writer says

"When a gun comes to grief the elephant marches up with the important air of an experienced engineer and deliberately inspects the state of affairs Thrusting his trunk around the spoke of a wheel, he gives it a lift as if to ascertain the depth and tenacity of the mud and then quietly walks around and does the same by the other wheel, dropping it again with a funny twinkle of the eye as if he said to himself, 'All right, I can start her, I think'

"Then he deliberates for a few minutes, gives a slight push here and a slight push there, when, having at last made up his mind as to the best mode of procedure, he probably applies his forehead—which has been padded for the purpose—to the muzzle of the gun and, uttering a shrill, trumpet-like sound as a signal for the gun bullocks to pull together, pushes against it with

SLACKERS ARE BEING BROUGHT TO WASHINGTON

Sheriff Frank B Wickerham is bringing in a number of slackers who failed to register in Washington county under the new conscription law. So far there have not been many, and those who have been found have been foreigners who did not fully understand the meaning of the law. However, all the delinquents are being found and brought to the Sheriff's office.

RED CROSS JRS. WILL HOLD LAWN FETE THIS EVENING

The Red Cross Juniors, an organization composed of some of Charleroi's most active coming citizens, will hold a lawn fete on the lawn at the home of W. H. Atkins, Washington avenue, this evening, from 6 until 9 o'clock. Admission to the festivities will be 15 cents. Should the weather be unfavorable the fete will be adjourned to the dining room at the Elks Club.

These boy workers for the Red Cross have a splendid organization, with the following officers—President, Luther Livingston; vice president, Wm Atkins, Jr., secretary, Lester Majors; treasurer, John Berryman, Jr. They already have a small fund collected, but being desirous of doing their "bit" in true American fashion want to make a more generous contribution to the work of the Red Cross.

JITNEY DRIVERS ARE HEAVILY FINED

The Public Service Comission at Harrisburg on Thursday imposed fines of $100 each on a number of jitney operators in Scranton who refused to obey the commission's order to cease operating jitneys. This action indicates the beginning of a vigorous policy on the part of the commission to enforce its orders against jitneymen, and will be followed in other sections of the state. At the present time a campaign is on against independent jitney operaors between Donora and Monessen, against whom cases are now pending before the commission.

the visitors on many phases and different situations that are likely to arise in the prosecutions of the different campaigns that may be undertaken.

The California Branch expects to be in complete working order within a very short time and as soon as the membership campaign is completed the various working units will be arranged which will have charge of the preparation of thev arious supplies which are needed by the Red Cross.

The visitors came down by auto following the country road, but were compelled to make their return journey by the way of the National pike, because of the storm.

JOHNNY J. JONES AND HIS EXPOSITION SHOWS

Johnny J. Jones and his Exposition Shows will arrive in Charleroi Sunday afternoon next, prepared to spend a week with us. He returns to Charleroi bringing many new features to this popular show and which it is believed will find favor with our people. There will be twenty separate attractions with the aggregation, seventeen of which are new to Charleroi, so that it will be seen that "J.J. J" is coming with something new and undoubtedly attractive. The local hospital will benefit by the appearance the shows.

NEW CONFECTIONERY WILL OPEN MONDAY

The new Stevenson bakery and confectionery, Fallowfield avenue, between Fourth and Fifth streets, will open for business Monday morning next. The building, long delayed in its completion and appointments, is about finished and on next Monday morning Mr. Stevenson expects to have everything in shape to open his door to the public, to serve them in baked goods, confectioneries, ice-cream, light lunch and soda drinks.

The building is splendid in all its appointments, a finely equipped bake-shop, with all modern appliances being one of the features. The dough-mixing machinery is located on the third floor, with the cake shop on the second, while on the first floor, in the rear, is located the bread baking ovens, a modern Standard oven having been installed and which wil meet the needs of Mr. Stevenson in this line for several years to come. Modern machinery in every department of this excellently appointed bakery will produce bread at a minimum cost and in sufficient quantities to take care of the splendid trade whirh M. Stevenson has built up throughout this section of the county.

The confectionery department is also a pleasing feature of this new place of business, the interior of the room being finished in mahogany, while the other appointments are in keeping with the surroundings. In addition to serving ice cream and soda drinks, light lunches will also be a feature, while a full line of confectionery will be carried. Mr. Stevenson is welcomed as a valuable addition to the business activities of Charleroi

Mrs. William High underwent an operation at the Charleroi-Monessen hospital Thursday morning, and is reported as getting along splendidly.

CRUCIBLE MAN WAS KILLED IN PITTSBURG

The body of Leonard C. Cutlip of Crucible, Greene county, was found Monday morning at the bottom of a lumber pile on Duquesne way, Pittsburg. It was presumed the man had been dead about three hours when found. From the manner in which his head was crushed it was thought he had gone to sleep on top of a pile of lumber and was thrown to the bottom when the pile shifted. The man's identity was established by his registration card.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS PAID FOR PLANT

Fifteen thousand dollars was the price paid for the old Robinson Machine works in Monongahela by a Pittsburg business man, who will utilize it for a manufacturing plant. The property contains a plot of ground of approximately 180,000 square feet, upon which a number of buildings are erected, which were formerly used for shops. It is said these buildings will be repaced and the new owner begin the manufacture of high grade steel within a very short time.

RED CROSS CHAPTER IN MONONGAHELA

A Chapter of the American Red Cross Society was organized in Monongahela Tuesday night, with Frank Bebout as president; Joseph A. Herron as Secretary; James R. McGregor as treasurer, and C. H. Landefeld as chairman of the executive committee. Other officers and members of commitees, as needed, will be appointed at once and the Chapter placed in working condition as soon as possible.

YOU GET NO CHASERS WITH YOUR LIQUOR

The H. C. of L. has hit more things than food, if reports from liquid emporiums are true. The day of two drinks for two bits is past, and those who wish to indulge must now put up 15 cents straight. Not only this, but you drink your liquor straight, as at a recent meeting of the Hotel Men's Association it was decided that the giving away of drinks of any kind with the sale of liquors by the bottle and the serving of beer, pop, ginger ale or any other liquor as a wash is tabooed. You will take water henceforth as a "chaser." This rule went into effect last Saturday in many of the bars throughout the county.

STATE SEIZES LOT OF SPOILED MEAT

Twelve thousand pounds of spoiled meat, belonging to Morris & Co., of Chicago and which had been placed in the plant of the Crystal Ice and Cold Storage company at Uniontown was seized by Dr. William Gimer of the State Livestock Sanitary Board on Tuesday. Economy practiced by the housewives of Uniontown is responsible for the extra supply of meat, which had been placed in cold storage, but which spoiled before there was sufficient demand for it.

Mrs. S. Rock and Mrs. Albert Hopkins were Pittsburg visitors on Tuesday.

WAYNESBURG SWAMPED BY CHARLEROI SPEEDERS

Clyde Regester's Steel Products team went so fast at Waynesburg yesterday afternoon that the Greene county boys couldn't see them for dust. Moody pitched for Charleroi and was effective, while Haywood and Phillips were also very much in evidence. The score was 10 to 2 in favor of the Steel Products.

USING A MEDICINE DROPPER.

The More Slanting It Is Held the Bigger the Drops Will Be.

When using a medicine dropper it is important to use it correctly, especially if measuring out drops of some powerful medicine like strychnine, morphine or arsenic, for drops vary widely in their size.

Dr. R. P. Garrow of London recently reported to the Lancet the results of some experiments he had made with a medicine dropper and a simple solution. He measured the solution very carefully and then took it all up into a medicine dropper, from which he turned it, drop by drop, holding the dropper at different angles and counting the drops as they fell.

With the dropper held vertically (at an angle of 90 degrees with the horizontal) its contents made 100 drops. Held at an angle of 50 degrees its contents made eighty-two drops; at 20 degrees they made sixty-eight drops, at 10 degrees they made sixty drops, and held horizontal they made only forty-eight drops.

In other words, the drops become progressively larger as the dropper is moved from the vertical position. A drop from a dropper held at an angle of 50 degrees is one-quarter larger than normal; thus, if the nurse has to give sixteen drops and holds the dropper slanting she is really giving twenty. And the more slanting the dropper the bigger the drops.

FALLS ONLY TO RISE.

An Experiment With a Sort of Perpetual Motion Effect.

A novel experiment in the demonstration of perpetual motion is to be performed simply. A glass beaker about six inches high and four inches in diameter is filled with water to the height of about four and a half inches, and two and one-half to three ounces of commercial aniline are added, which will sink to the bottom of the vessel.

The temperature of the beaker and its contents is now raised to 170 or 175 degrees F. by means of a burner, when it will be observed that the aniline will rise to the surface of the water, from which it will hang in a mass of curved outline. Almost immediately the suspended aniline commences to alter in shape, and gradually a large drop an inch or more in diameter detaches itself from the mass and falls through the water.

And now, the detached drop having fallen to the bottom of the beaker, comes the surprising part of the experiment. The fallen drop is seen gradually to rise to the surface, where it joins the mass from which it previously broke away. At once another drop commences to form and, having become detached, falls and rises in the same manner as the previous drop.

So long as the temperature of the water is maintained at 170 degrees or over this procedure continues.

The Chinese "Five Kings."

"The Five Kings" is the name of the sacred book in which is incorporated the religion of the Chinese as well as a great number of other peoples of the orient. The doctrine is a complex system of moral, social, political and religious teaching built up by Confucius on the ancient Chinese traditions, and although its author lived more than five centuries before the birth of Christ, it is still perpetuated as the state religion of the Chinese down to the present day. Confucianism is a religion without positive revelation, with a minimum of dogmatic teaching, whose popular worship is centered in offerings to the dead, in which the notion of duty is extended beyond the sphere of morals proper so as to embrace almost every detail of daily life.

Philippine Fruits.

There have been found in the Philippines two fruits entirely unknown to Europe and even to America. One of these is the durian, which grows on a lofty tree somewhat resembling an elm, is about as large as a cocoanut, has a shiny shell and contains a creamy pulp which combines some of the flavors of delicious custard with those of a fine cheese. American soldiers in the Philippines have dubbed the durian the "vegetable limburger." The other rare fruit is the mangosteen; but the exquisitely flavored liquid it contains has not yet been successfully preserved for shipping abroad.

Not the Right Brand.

"I must request the congregation to contribute generously this morning," said the Rev. Mr. Smallfee sadly. "My stipend is eight months in arrears, and my creditors are pressing. I, of course, work largely for love, and love is small pay, of course, is tender, but it isn't legal tender."—London Telegraph.

Going to Extremes.

"I tell you what," said Gotham, entertaining his western cousin, "everything is so high here it's almost impossible to keep a house going."

"Well," replied the cousin, "the winds are so high out our way it's almost impossible to keep a house from going."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

Flag of the Chinese Republic.

The flag of the Chinese republic shows five equal horizontal stripes—red, yellow, blue, white and black, reading downward. The red stripe at the top stands for China proper, the yellow for Manchuria, the blue for Mongolia, the white for Tibet and the black for Turkestan.

A Sign.

"She must be getting old."

"What makes you think so?"

"She's begun telling folks how young she was when she married."—Detroit Free Press.

DOCTORS BRING IN IMPORTANT VERDICT

THEY ALL AGREE WITHOUT DISSENTING VOICE

Since the remarkable discovery of the exceptional beneficial results from the use of Phosphated Iron in anaemia and general debility it is estimated that millions of people in the Eastern States alone are taking it.

Most astonishing results are reported by every physician who has prescribed it and all give it hearty endorsement. Leading Doctors have said its use would eliminate all blood and nervous trouble and give us strong, clear skinned, healthy, vigorous men and women.

Physiologists have known for years that there cannot be healthy good red blood and strong nerves where there is lack of Iron and Phosphates, that nine-tenths of all skin diseases are due to the absence of these two important elements. Specially is this so in the case of women who so often have facial blemishes. One of our foremost beauty specialist said to our reporter: "Show me the woman with the healthy, clear, ruddy complexion, velvety skin, bright eyes, exuberant spirits and vigor and you will find loads of Iron and Phosphates in her system every time."

Doctors claim that pale anemic women who have "that all gone look," dragging themselves around with no ambition, weak nerves, irritable and quarrelsome, can trace their condition directly to the lack of Iron and Phosphates in their systems. There is absolutely no excuse for their suffering this way while Phosphated Iron is within their reach.

Physicians have always known and the general public are finding it out for themselves that watery, thin blood is due to the absence of Iron and Phosphates and to correct this and obtain a healthy circulation which means life and all that it implies, namely a strong vigorous body and a correspondingly strong active mind, one must have these two elements in abundance.

Leading Doctors all over the land are prescribing and giving their patients Phosphated Iron as one of the standard remedies which they can look to to produce splendid results in all run down conditions. This valuable preparation is kept by every good druggist and if you will secure it today and take it according to directions it will not disappoint you.

Special Notice—To insure physicians and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we put it up in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to substitute any pills or tablets. W. F. Hennings, Charleroi and leading druggists everywhere.
